Evening, 8 o'clock.—Social meeting. Addresses by the State Superintendent and others.

A local committee, consisting of J. T. Valentine, J. S. Ermentrout, Wash'n. Roat, John Barnes, and I. H. Stewart, has been appointed to provide accommodations for boarding; and the Pennsylvania Central and Philadelphia and Reading Railroads, have agreed to issue Excursion tickets at reduced rates to the members of the convention. Similar arrangements will be made, if possible, with other railroads, due notice of which will be given in the Philadelphia daily papers.

The County Superintendents and friends of education in every county in the State, are requested to call attention to this meeting through the medium of Local papers and Educational organizations in order that all who can come may be induced to attend the annual gathering of an association that has for its object, not the enriching of its members specially, but, ultimately, to benefit every child in the commonwealth, by perfecting the system of public instruction.

Let us show to the world that while Pennsylvania is able to send one hundred thousand of her sons to fight for constitutional liberty and sound government, she is able and willing, at the same time, to foster those institutions which have placed within the reach of all her children that education which will make them useful members of society and loyal citizens.

SMEDLEY DARLINGTON,
Chairman of Ex. Committee.

Ercildoun, June 26 1862.

THE WHITE HOUSE GUN-BOATS.

Orpheus C. Kerr, of the Mackerel Brigade, writing from Washington, narrates the following incident:

Some months ago, my boy, the General gave an order to an eastern contractor for a couple of peculiarly made gun-boats for this service; but happening to pass the White House shortly after, saw what he took to be the models of two just such gun-boats protruding out of one of the windows. Thinking that the President had concluded to attend to the matter himself, he immediately telegraphed to the contractor not to go on with the job.

Quite recently the contractor came here again, and says he to the General:

"I'd like to see the models of those White House gunboats."

The General conducted him towards the White House, my boy, and they two stoop admiring the models, which protruded from the window as usual.

Pretty soon a Western Congressman came along, and says the contractors to him: "Can you tell me, sir, whether those models of gunboats up there are on exhibition?"

"Gun-boats!" says the Western chap, "do you take those things for gun-boats?"

"Of course," says the contractor.

"Why you darned fool!" says the Congressman, "those are the President's boots. The President always sits with his feet out of the window when he's at home, and those are the ends of his boots."

Without another word, my boy, the General and contractor turned gloomily from the spot convinced that they had witnessed the most terrific FEET of the campaign.

☞An idler boasted to a farmer of his ancient family, laying much stress upon his having descended from an illustrious man who had lived several centuries ago. "So much the worse for you," replied the farmer, "for we find the older the seed the poorer the crop is."

☞One half penny a day will buy food in China sufficient to enable a man to "live comfortably."

☞One ought to have dates at one's finger's ends, seeing they grow upon the palm.

☞The gentleman whose lips pressed a lady's "snowy brow," did not catch cold.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

The Democracy of Bedford county, will meet in MASS CONVENTION, at the Court House, in Bedford, on MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 1, for the purpose of ratifying Democratic nominations, and re-iterating their oft-repeated pledges to the "Constitution As It Is," and the "Union As It Was," to renew their solemn protest against Abolition and its natural consequence, Secession, and to vindicate the Democratic party from the aspersions falsely cast upon it by Abolition traitors in the North, the enemies of the Constitution and the Union.

Rally, Democrats! Friends of Constitutional Liberty, to the rescue! Come from your farms and your workshops, come from mountain and valley, come ye who in the dark future of our country, must bear the heat and burden of the day, and strike one more blow for liberty and law, for the safety of your homes, the protection of your property, the security of your lives!

"Come as the winds come
When forests are rended!
Come as the waves come,
When navies are stranded!"

Meeting of the Democratic County Committee at the office of Hon. W. P. Schell, in Bedford, on WEDNESDAY, the 20th DAY OF AUGUST, INST., for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will be laid before the Committee.

The following named persons constitute the Committee:

Advance Terms, &c.

Our subscribers should remember that if they want to get their papers at the advance rate of $1.50 per annum, they must pay now or within three months from the present date. Paying at the end of six months, or just before the year is up, is not paying in advance. The coming court will afford a good opportunity for advance paying subscribers to send in their money. We would also ask those who are in arrears to call and settle. Of course we do not refer to regular paying subscribers. We mean those who owe us for two, three or more years. We must pay our debts and find it impossible to do so without money. Friends, let not our appeal be in vain!

New Volume.

With this number we commence a new volume of the Gazette, and the sixth year of its publication since it came into our hands. For the flattering and substantial encouragement given us during the past five years of our editorial career, the public have our hearty thanks, and we would especially express our feelings of gratitude to the noble Democracy of our county, who have stood by us, in sunshine and in storm, and in the hour of trial and peril hedged us in with an impenetrable circle of brave and patriotic hearts. And, now, though the future seems full of doubt and gloom, we look forward with an unfaltering trust in the good common sense of the masses, to a day not far distant, when the political doctrines which we have sustained shall be triumphantly vindicated by a people aroused to a full appreciation of the dreadful issue to which the opponents of those doctrines have brought the country. Friends of the Gazette! The past is radiant with the memory of your fidelity—the present is here and demands more work, more sacrifice, more self-abnegation for the sake of principle—the future we leave in your hands, to mould it as you may, remembering always, however, that

"There's a Divinity that shapes our ends
Rough hew them how we will."

☞Levi Long, a member of Capt. Lyons' company, was killed a few weeks ago, by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of another soldier.

A Couple of Patriots.

Harry Gas and G. F. Baer are brothers who publish the Somerset Democrat. In the early part of this war, Harry enrolled himself in a company and marched to the battle field. Previous to that he was stigmatized as a Secessionist and rebel sympathizer, by the abolitionists. This had to cease, and the vials of wrath were emptied upon the head of George, who remained to conduct the paper. He, too, is now engaged in recruiting a company, and the enemy's battery is silenced by force of circumstances; but we presume their paper will still be styled, by the cowardly stay-at-home Abolitionists of Somerset county, as the Breckinridge organ, and their successor in the conduct of the paper as a rebel sympathizer. It is by such means alone that the Republicans hope to maintain power.—[Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

Not only have both the present proprietors of the Somerset Democrat enrolled themselves in the army of the Union, but the late proprietor, C. F. Mitchell, Esq., as brave a man and true a patriot as ever breathed, has also been in the service from the very beginning of the war. Mr. Mitchell is now Orderly Sergeant of Company A, Tenth Pa. Reserves, and was in all of the fierce and bloody conflicts before Richmond and during the retreat to James River.

R. R. Roddy, Esq., the editor of the Democratic organ in Somerset, before it came into the hands of Mr. Mitchell, is, likewise, a volunteer in the ranks of the Union army, and fought valiantly at the bloody battle of Fair Oaks.

Preventing Enlistments.

We have heard that a few persons, half-crazed with partizan rancor, feign to believe that we desire to oppose enlistments. It is hardly necessary to deny that we have any such wish, as no sane man who knows our sentiments, could entertain such a belief for a moment. But lest such an impression might work injury to the raising of troops in this county, we take the earliest opportunity, to correct this wanton and gratuitous mistake into which our kind friends have so unwittingly fallen. We say now is the time to enlist, if for no other reasons than these: large sums of bounty money will be paid to all volunteers under the new call and those enlisting now, will be held for only nine months' service.

☞We have a telegraphic report that Messrs. Barrett and MacDowell, proprietors of the Harrisburg Patriot & Union, have been arrested and sent to prison on suspicion of having printed and circulated handbills in opposition to Jim Lane's proposed programme of raising negro soldiers in that city. Both gentlemen are strong Union men, MacDowell having been, until lately, Lieut. Col. of the 85th Pa. Vol. Is this intended for the purpose of intimidating the Democratic press of Pennsylvania? Time will develop.

HOME NEWS, ETC.

RETURNED.—Our mercantile friend, G. R. Oster, has returned from his late tour in the West. Judging from his appearance, we should

A VALIANT SOLDIER.—The editor of the Inquirer is quite severe upon what he denominates "disloyal preachers." He fights the preachers most gallantly. Fight on, most valiant home-guard!

—o—

WOUNDED.—Capt. Mark Kerns, formerly of this place, commanded a battery during the late engagements on the Chickahominy. He lost two pieces of his battery and was wounded in the leg. We are glad to learn that he is recovering from the effects of his wound.

—o—

BARN BURNED.—The barn of Mr. O'Brien, near Buena Vista, in this county, was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Mr. O'Brien lost all his grain except a few shocks yet remaining in the fields, his wagon and many agricultural implements. It is not known how the fire originated.

—o—

NEW COMPANIES.—S. Dickerhoof and John Getty, of this place, are about raising a company of volunteers. Capt. Bobb, J. C. Hawman, and S. D. Williams are recruiting in the Northern part of the county. Dr. Hudson of Cumberland Valley, will leave for Harrisburg, on Saturday next, with a squad of men.

—o—

"HANG UP THE TRAITORS!"—It is the daily employment of some of the rabid, or as Thurlow Weed calls them, "infernal" Republicans in this neighborhood, to denounce and slander Gen. McClellan. One of them said, a few days since, that McClellan sympathized with the secessionists and that every Democrat in the army was in sympathy with the rebellion! Such infamous vilification of men who are ready to offer up their lives and their all for their country, is calculated to discourage enlistments and ought to be stopped at once. Some of Cessna's hemp, of which the Inquirer is so greatly enamored, would have a wholesome effect upon these vile-tongued, venom-hearted, stay-at-home traitors.

A PROPER EXCHANGE.—Whilst arrangements are being made for a mutual exchange of prisoners, would it not be well to send some of our Secession sympathizers South, a like number of Union men to be received in their place? At least, let them have the opportunity of a change of residence, and an abode among people more congenial.—A Reader in the Press.

That's the idea. Consider Bedford county in for two chances. Yea, a dozen. A few of our sympathizers will no doubt volunteer at once, and for God's sake let 'em go. Yes, any place, so that this fair land that has never harbored treason or been disgraced until now, may once more assert its integrity, and no longer stand abashed with SHAME. We're in for the exchange.—Bedford Inquirer.

Very well said, Mr. Inquirer! "Our sympathizers!" "We're in for the exchange!" Of course you are. Of course you will go. Some of your "sympathizers," John Brown, Edwin Coppie and others who weren't quite as great cowards as you, went down South some time ago. We have no doubt that you are "in for the exchange." You ought to be in for it. You ought to go down South and officer some of the "nigger companies" your 'sympathizers" are raising.

BOUNTY MONEY.—The following paper was handed around among the citizens of our borough, subsequent to the late war meeting:

The undersigned will pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, to be refunded out of any moneys that may be appropriated by the commisioners, in pursuance of the request of this meeting, and the same to be paid to S. L. Russell, who is hereby appointed treasurer to receive the same and disburse it in bounties to volunteers, in such manner and at such times as may hereafter be directed by the subscribers or a majority of them. And in case no appropriation is made, the subscription to be absolute.

☞The Secesh are getting themselves together in some counties and calling themselves Democrats. Men have borrowed the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in before.—Exchange.

Exactly the fix of a few of the Secesh tribe in this "neck o' woods." Your genuine, true blue Democrat is Union to the core, but the agonizing, negro-despising, blood and thunder, holy-horror, down with the abolitionists Democrat is Secesh under the potent name of DEMOCRAT. Verily they have stolen "the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in."—Bedford Inquirer.

We are glad to find that our Republican friends have at last come to their senses. They have discovered that the "potent name of Democrat" is the "livery of Heaven!" A few months ago it was only the synonym for "dirty, nasty locofoco." In making this discovery, however, their visual organs were put to so violent a strain as to cause every body who deprecates the curse of Jeff. Davis Secessionist. There is not a Democrat in Pennsylvania who does not say with all his heart, "down with the Abolitionists." Therefore, according to the sweeping generalization of the preacher-fighting editor of the Inquirer, all Democrats are Secessionists! Who says that Mr. Durborrow can't tell—the truth?

"Omnibus quae prosunt sequimur," or "we labor for the good of all," is the inscription on one of the chime of bells given by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. to the city of Lowell. That favored place may have the bells, but they cannot monopolize the Doctor's skill which is made available by his Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills to all alike—not only in this country but in all countries where civilization and commerce have gone. While we admire the liberality and taste of those gentlemen in such a donation to their native town, we will remind our readers of the hallowing influence a chime of bells spreads over the whole community, that hears them. They are few in this country, and their influence is little known, but ask the exile from his home in Germany, France, England, whether the chime on Trinity Church does not make his heart leap into his mouth, and his eyes swim in the recollection it brings of the solemn notes his childhood, his boyhood, eye, and his manhood loved to hear at the soft approach of evening in his native land.

We wish our generous townsmen whom God has blessed with means would consider whether we too cannot add this one more attraction to make our children and ourselves love dearer and stronger and longer the place we call our home. [Madison, Ind. Banner.]

IMPORTANT WAR ORDER.
A Draft for 300,000 Militia, for Nine Months, Ordered.

WASHINTON, August 4.—The following order has just been issued:—

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4, 1862.—Order calling for militia from the several States:—

Ordered—1st. That a draft of 300,000 militia be immediately called into the service of the United States, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged. The Secretary of War will assign the quotas to the States, and establish regulations for the draft.

2d. That, if any State shall not, by the 15th of August, furnish its quota of the additional 300,000 volunteers authorized by law, the deficiency of volunteers in that State will also be made by special draft from the militia. The Secretary of War will establish regulations for this purpose.

Third. Regulations will be prepared by the War Department and presented to the President with the object of securing the promotion of officers of the army and volunteers, for meritorious and distinguished services, and of preventing the nomination or appointment in the military service of incompetent or unworthy officers. The regulations will also provide for ridding the service of such incompetent persons as now hold commissions. By order of the Pres't.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

Meeting of the Bar.

At a meeting of the Somerset Bar, held in the Court House on Monday evening, the 21st inst., DANIEL WEYAND, Esq., was called to the chair, and Elias Cunningham, Esq., chosen Secretary.

Edward Scull, Esq., stated the object of the meeting, and suggested that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions, whereupon the Chairman appointed Edward Scull, H. L. Baer, Cyrus Meyers, A. J. Colborn and A. H. Coffroth, Esqrs., who reported as follows:

WHEREAS, We have received the sad tidings, that Adjutant O. H. Gaither, a member of this bar, a gentleman of unblemished character, and a soldier of approved courage, fell in the shock of battle before Richmond on the 30 ultimo—therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death the bar has lost a much esteemed member, whose early manhood gave rich promise of a career of usefulness, of honor and of prominence in his profession.

Resolved, That while we mourn for one thus taken off in his prime, we yet hail with highest admiration the pure patriotism, the gallant spirit, the true heroism that urged him to leave the peaceful pursuit of a loved profession, for the gory field, where with his young life he sealed his devotion to his country and its flag.

Resolved, That we extend to the parents and relatives of the gallant dead our sympathy in their affliction. They have our heartfelt condolence in their loss.

Resolved, That we will mark our grief and esteem for the memory of our deceased professional brother and friend, by wearing the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of the letter of Gen. Seymour, addressed to his parents, stating his fall on the field of battle, be requested for publication with these proceedings.

On motion of Lewis Lichty, Esq., the chair appointed a committee consisting of L. Lichty, W. H. Koontz, V. Hay, J. O. Kimmel and W. H. Posflethwaite, Esqrs., to transmit a copy of the resolutions to the family of the deceased.

On motion of J. H. Uhl, Esq., a copy of these proceedings were ordered to be furnished the papers of Bedford and of this borough, with the request that they be published.

On motion of J. D. Roddy, Esq., it was

Resolved, That while this meeting was called for the special purpose of expressing our regret at the death of O. H. Gaither, Esq., the only member of our Bar who has fallen in this war, yet we cannot refrain from expressing our sense of grief for the loss of the many other gallant spirits from this county, who gave their lives for their country, and we hereby tender to their families and friends our heart-felt sympathies.

GEN. SEYMOUR'S LETTER.

Below Richmond, Va., July 7th, 1862.

MY DEAR SIR:—I have just learned that you have still two other sons under my command; through them I desire to communicate to you the circumstances, so far as the confusion of battle permits me to remember, of the death of Oswald H. Gaither, Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 10th Reg't., P. R. C., and also your son.

Necessity compelled me, when I assumed command of a Brigade of this division in May [illegible] to act as an aid. I belligence and his devotion to his duties—and formed in a very short time a very high estimate of his qualities as a man and as a soldier. His courage was conspicuous. At Mechanicsville he was energetic and efficient. But it was at our last battle near New Market, on June 30th, when this Division had its terrible struggle with overpowering forces, that the good qualities of your son came distinctly under my notice. On the left of our line was a slight shelter or breastwork, surrounding some log outhouses; behind these a slight cavity or valley sheltered the 10th Regiment with others. Your son aided strenuously in cheering our men to stand and meet the coming foe. I had just given him some directions and turned about to observe the approaching line of rebels, faced about to give him some new directions, when to my surprise he lay at my feet. I dismounted and moved him, hoping that he was only wounded, but he was dead. Where struck, or how, I cannot say. I cannot be mistaken, I think, as to his person. This loss is great to the service, to his regiment, to myself, but how much more to you—his parents. You may be proud that he did his duty as a man and a patriot—that he fell with his face to the foe. I can offer you no other consolation than that derived from the hope that after a few more years of toil, of warefare, of trouble, you may again meet him where there is no sorrow, no separation. In this hope I bid God bless you, and am very truly,

Your obedient servant,
T. SEYMOUR,
Brig. Gen.

The "Peoples" State Convention.

WHAT A LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER THINKS OF IT.

We copy the following article from the last issue of the Somerset Herald & Whig, the organ of the "Republican" party of Somerset county, and commend it to the candid consideration of our Republican friends in this county:

☞In our columns to-day, will be found the proceedings of the "Peoples' State Convention" held in Harrisburg on Thursday last. This body was composed of a mingling of Republicans and Democrats, and was not in any sense a Republican Convention, as is claimed by a portion of the republican press.

The resolutions are eminently patriotic, just and proper, and as far as they are consistent with each other, will receive the approbation of every loyal man in the Commonwealth. But, by undertaking to fully endorse the foreign and domestic policy of the National Administration, and "the upright, prudent, temperate, and firm" course of the president in one resolution, and the Hon. David Wilmot as the "true and faithful representative of the loyal people of this State" in another, the Convention simply stultified itself; for on the very day preceding the one on which these resolutions were adopted, the President and Mr. Wilmot had been in direct antagonism on the confiscation bill—the most important measure before the late Congress—and although Mr. Fessenden announced by authority, that it would be vetoed as unconstitutional, if not amended in certain particulars, Mr. Wilmot still persisted in voting against the alterations suggested by the President. The President and Mr. Wilmot can not, therefore, both be right, and we incline to the belief that although the loyal people of Pennsylvania will endorse the course of the latter as "manly, consistent, and patriotic," yet the views of the President will be accepted in preference.

Nor was it in this particular alone, that the Convention stultified itself. It undertook to mark its disapprobation of the course of our other Senator—Mr. Cowan—by studiously omitting his name from its resolutions, thus leaving it to be inferred that he was not only lacking in loyalty, but was in antagonism to the Administration which they so deftly lauded; when at the very time, the President had based his veto message of the Confiscation bill upon the Constitutional objections so clearly and vigorously put by Mr. Cowan in his great speech on that subject. Being thus highly complimented and endorsed by the President, on the very point on which these straight-laced and self-righteous loyalists, controlling the Convention, first based their hostility to him, we opine that Mr. Cowan can afford to laugh at his discomfited assailants, and calmly bide the time when it will be made manifest to all people, that no violation of the Constitution is necessary to crush the rebellion, and restore the supremacy of the government in the remotest corners of the Republic.

When next a State Convention assumes to make, and unmake men, we trust it will most carefully note passing events before it commits itself.—Meanwhile we commend to some of the leaders in this last one, the following morceau of Goldsmith's. Perhaps they can extract a moral from it.

"This dog and man at first were friends,
But when a pique began,
The dog, to gain some private end,
Went mad and bit the man.

The wound it seem'd both sore and sad,
To every christian eye;
And while they swore the dog was mad,
They swore the man would die.

But soon a wonder came to light,
That show'd the rogues they ly'd;
The man recover'd of the bite,
The dog it was that dy'd.

Conference of the Rebel Generals at Richmond—Their Plans for the Future.

MEMPHIS, July 30.—The Bulletin of this morning has the following from authentic sources, among other interesting items as to the proceedings of the rebels:

"We have some inkling of the subject discussed at two conferences of all the principal military leaders, held in Richmond, on the 4th and 5th inst. It is understood that they came to the conclusion that they must not lose any more territory. The defensive policy was strongly attacked, and both Lee and Beauregard advised the invasion of the North at three points, namely: From Cumberland and Williamsport into Pennsylvania, from Louisville and Cincinnati into Indiana and Ohio, and from Paducah and Cairo into Illinois.

"It is alleged that the following plan of operations for the remainder of the summer campaign was agreed upon:—First—The immediate obstruction of the James river, so as to make it impossible for McClellan to use it as a means of communicating with the Government and for the transportation of reinforcements and army supplies. Second—The occupation of Williamsburg, Yorktown, and the entire Peninsula. Third [illegible] ginia, and the suppression of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the recovery of New Orleans, Memphis, and the Mississippi river, and the expulsion of the Federal troops from Tennessee and Kentucky. Fourth—When these objects have been accomplished, then it was proposed to carry out the plan of Lee and Beauregard. Fifth—To make the Potomac and Ohio rivers at once their basis of operations and frontier lines, and to transfer the seat of war from Virginia to Maryland. Sixth—To hurl upon Washington from Richmond a column of 200,000 troops.

"By the capture of that city, the liberation of Baltimore and the invasion of the North at the three points named above, becoming in turn the invaders, they hope to make it necessary for us to keep at home, for the defence of our cities, five hundred thousand troops."

The War in Missouri.

CAIRO, August 1.—Advices have been received by Gen. Strong, from Bloomfield, Mo., that about 100 of Coleman's men were surrounded in that town by five or six hundred rebels, that a sharp fight was going on, and that our troops thought they could sustain themselves until reinforcements, which have been sent from Cape Girardeau, could reach them.

Letters from a rebel mail, captured at Corinth, on the 29th ult., indicate a rebel movement on Chattanooga and Nashville.

CAIRO, August 2.—Reports from Bloomfield, Mo., state that Col. Daniels, with a force numbering 100, had been attacked by 500 or 600 rebels. It was thought that Daniels would be able to hold his position if the reinforcements which had been sent to him should arrive.

QUINCY, Ill., Aug. 2.—About a hundred and fifty rebels under Dunn, attacked Canton, Mo., 16 miles north of this place last night. They shot Wm. Carrygh, in order to get some rifles stored in his warehouse, and he is not expected to live. They then took possession of the rifles, plundered the stores of whatever they wanted and left. The amount of damage done by them has not yet been ascertained.

PREPARATIONS FOR DRAFTING.
The Enrollment of the State Militia.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 1.—The following important circular has this day been issued, from which it would appear that the authorities here are actively preparing for any emergency that may rise:—

Head-quarters Pennsylvania Militia, Adjutant-General's Department, Harrisburg, August 1, 1862.—To the County Commissioners:—All County Commissioners who have not complied with the circular issued from these head-quarters dated July 12th, 1862, are hereby required to complete and return to these head-quarters the enrollment of their respective counties before the 10th day of August. Very respectfully, &c.,

A. L. RUSSELL,
Ajutant-General Pennsylvania.

Is it possible that any Soldier can be so foolish as to leave the city without a supply of HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT & PILLS? Whoever does so will deeply regret it. These medicines are the only certain cure for Bowel Complaints, Fevers, Sores and Scurvy. Only 25 cents per Box or Pot. 223

AYER'S PILLS.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Billious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX, OR FIVE BOXES FOR $1.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUTTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOLOREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price $1 per Bottle: Six Bottles in one package, $5.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.

The undersigned appointed to distribute money in the hands of A. J. Statler, administrator of Geo. W. Statler, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will meet the parties in interest, at his office in Bedford, on Wednesday, the 27th day of August inst., when and where all may attend.

JOHN PALMER,
August 1, 1862.—3t. Auditor.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Having made such arrangements as enable me to procure at once Pensions, Bounty Money, Back pay, &c. I beg to call the attention of those interested, to the following:—All disabled soldiers, the widows or miner children of soldiers, who die or have been killed in the service, are entitled to pensions; the widows or other legal heirs of soldiers who die or are killed in the service are entitled to the $100 bounty.

☞All claims are carefully examined by the department, and it is of the greatest importance, to claimants, to employ none but careful and experienced counsel, if they wish to avoid delay. All cases entrusted to my care, are attended to at once, and all letters answered by return mail, and no charge is made until the Pension is granted.

☞Persons entitled to the $100 Bounty, can have their claims cashed, on application at my office. Attorneys and Pension Agents, writing for Blank forms, and requisite printed instructions, also persons desiring counsel to enable them to locate lands under the provisions of the late Homestead Act, should enclose a fee. GREAT BOOK IN PRESS.

THRILLING INCIDENTS OF THE GREAT REBELLION;
OR,
The Heroism of our Soldiers & Sailors.
ILLUSTRATED.

1 vol., large 12mo. Price, $1.25.

The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass, in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. Its theme will be the heroic daring, patient suffering, and hairbreadth escapes of our soldiers and sailors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War, by JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY, LL. D., Author of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc., the dates of all the important events from John Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principle battles, with engravings.

One third the proceeds of all Subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to benefit the soldiers, should send their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it

BOOKSELLERS, POSTMASTERS, and CANVASSING AGENTS will be furnished with a Sub-scription Prospectus, on application to the Publishers.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

Coughs and Colds affecting Troops,

Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

Sick Headache and Want of Appetite, Incidental to Soldiers.

Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness or Debility Induced by over Fatigue.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

Volunteers Attention! Indiscretions of Youth

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet, Sabre or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, these are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor woundas and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chets should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts, and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

ENTIRELY VEGETABLE!

NO ALCOHOLIC PREPARATION!

A PURE TONIC MEDICINE.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED
German Bitters,
PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Phil'a., Pa.

WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE

Chronic or nervous debility, diseases of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness, or blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, fulness or weight in the Stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the head hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILLIOUS FEVER, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL, OR BAD WHISKEY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN
PHYSICIANS,
AND CITIZENS,

Testifying, of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined, but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD.

Eighth, below Coates st., Phil., Dec. 24.

From the wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

Germantown, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz:—Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease. Respectfully,

HANNAH WUNDER.
